

Troop 75's Annual Webelos Invitational

NOVEMBER 13-15, 2020

FIRELANDS SCOUT RESERVATION

13782 Gore Orphanage Road

Wakeman, OH 44889

What Activities Will Webelos Participate In?

FIRST AID: Practice and learn first aid skills such as treatment and prevention of emergency situations like heat stroke and frostbite to bites and stings of insects.

FIREBUILDING: Learn the purposes of building a fire: cooking, warmth, rescue and protection. Fire is one of the most important resources you can have at your disposal.

AXE YARD: Learn about the etiquette, skills and safety measures required to use axes, saws and hatchets. Practice sharpening these tools as well as knives.

ORIENTEERING: Navigate your way through a set course using only a heading and number of paces while learning how to use a compass and map together.

ARCHERY: Put your archery skills to the test. Take aim and test your marksmanship to see how many bullseyes you can hit on traditional and unique targets.

BB SHOOTING: Ready, aim, fire! Do you have what it takes to be an excellent marksman? We will teach you proper rifle and gun safety while utilizing basic shooting techniques.

KNOTS: Learn to tie camping knots like the two-half hitches, taut-line hitch and rescue knots like the bowline to simple joining knots like the square knot.

CLIMBING: Have fun on the mobile climbing wall testing your skills on various levels of difficulty. Ring the siren at the top to let everyone know that you are a climbing pro.

Are Meals Provided?

All meals for the weekend are provided by Troop 75! Our scouts will be in charge of cooking and serving each meal throughout the weekend.

One of the highlights of this weekend is the Saturday Evening dinner which will consist of Smoked Turkey, Pork, Mashed Potatoes, Vegetables, Dinner Rolls, Desserts and more—all of it prepared by the Boy Scouts of Troop 75!

If you have special dietary restrictions, you may feel free to bring your own food to prepare and should let us know what equipment will be needed to prepare that food. We will do our best to help provide the equipment needed to prepare any food you may have to bring, but you will be responsible for preparing the food!
